Plaintiffs,

vs.

BELLEVUE VALLEY LAND CO., JOHN H. WILLIAMS, and ELLEN B. WILLIAMS,

Case No. 13-11743-t7

Adv. No. 20-01022-T

JOINT MOTION TO APPROVE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

COME NOW Defendants, Bellevue Valley Land Co., a New Mexico corporation (hereinafter referred to as “Bellevue”), John H. Williams and Ellen B. Williams (the Williams are hereinafter jointly referred in the singular to as “Williams”)(Williams and Bellevue are jointly referred to as “Defendants”) by and through their attorney, W. T. Martin, Jr., of Martin, Dugan & Martin and Brian Van Winkle, individually and as co-personal representative of the estate of Fred Van Winkle, and Tammy Sprague, individually, and as co-personal representative of the estate of Fred Van Winkle by and through their attorney Davis Miles McGuire Gardner, PLLC (Ron Holmes) pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) and move this Court to approve the Settlement Agreement entered into by the parties. As grounds for this Motion, the parties to the Settlement Agreement state:

1. This Court had ordered a mediation to be conducted by Paul Fish. The mediation was conducted on August 24, 2021.
2. The parties reached a settlement that settled all issues and disputes that include the above styled and number Adversary, but also pending State Court litigation in the Otero County District Court and the Lincoln County District Court. The parties also settled disputes regarding judgment liens filed by both parties on property in various counties in New Mexico including on farm property in Roosevelt County, New Mexico.
3. A copy of the executed Settlement Agreement is attached to this Motion as Exhibit “A” and is incorporated herein as if fully set forth. The Settlement Agreement is in the best interest of all the parties to the Settlement Agreement, therefore request that the Court approve the Settlement, and that the Court approve the Settlement Agreement and authorize the parties to take any and all other actions necessary to finalize and conclude the settlement as set forth in the Settlement Agreement. The parties have reached this compromise after considering the cost, risk, and uncertainty of litigation.

4. This Court has the right and the power to approve the Settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a). Bankruptcy Rule 9019 provides, in pertinent part, that “[o]n motion by the trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise and settlement.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019(a). “To minimize litigation and expedite the administration of a bankruptcy estate, [c]ompromises are favored in bankruptcy.” In re Martin, 91 F.3d 389,393 (3d Cir. 1996) (quoting Collier on Bankruptcy ~ 9019.03[1] (15th ed. 1993)). The court is not required, however, to conduct a “mini-trial” to decide the questions of law or fact raised by the Settlement. In re Lee Way Holding Co., 82 B.R. 847, 853 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1990).
5. The standards by which a court should evaluate a compromise are well-established. In addition to the proposed terms of the compromise, the Court should consider the following:
 - a. The probable success of the litigation on the merits;
 - b. The possible difficulty in collection of a judgment;
 - c. The complexity and expense of the litigation; and (d) the interests of creditors. [See: In re Kopexa Realty Venture Co., 213 B.R. 1020 (10th Cir. B.A.P. 1997). Also see: Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMI' Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424-25 (1968) and In re Kaiser Steel Corp., 105 B.R. 971, 977 (D. Colo. 1989).
6. For other reasons, the Settlement Agreement is fair, equitable, and in the best interests of the Bankruptcy Estate and its creditors.

7. The approval of the Settlement Agreement does not prejudice the Debtor Estate or other creditors.

WHEREFORE, the parties jointly request that this Court enter an Order approving the Settlement Agreement and for such other relief as this Court deems proper.
